

Bus stops in Makina and Karanja, two of the formal villages, are known for robberies since the many business owners here often carry large sums of money.

Carjackings are frequent at the Ayany Bridge.

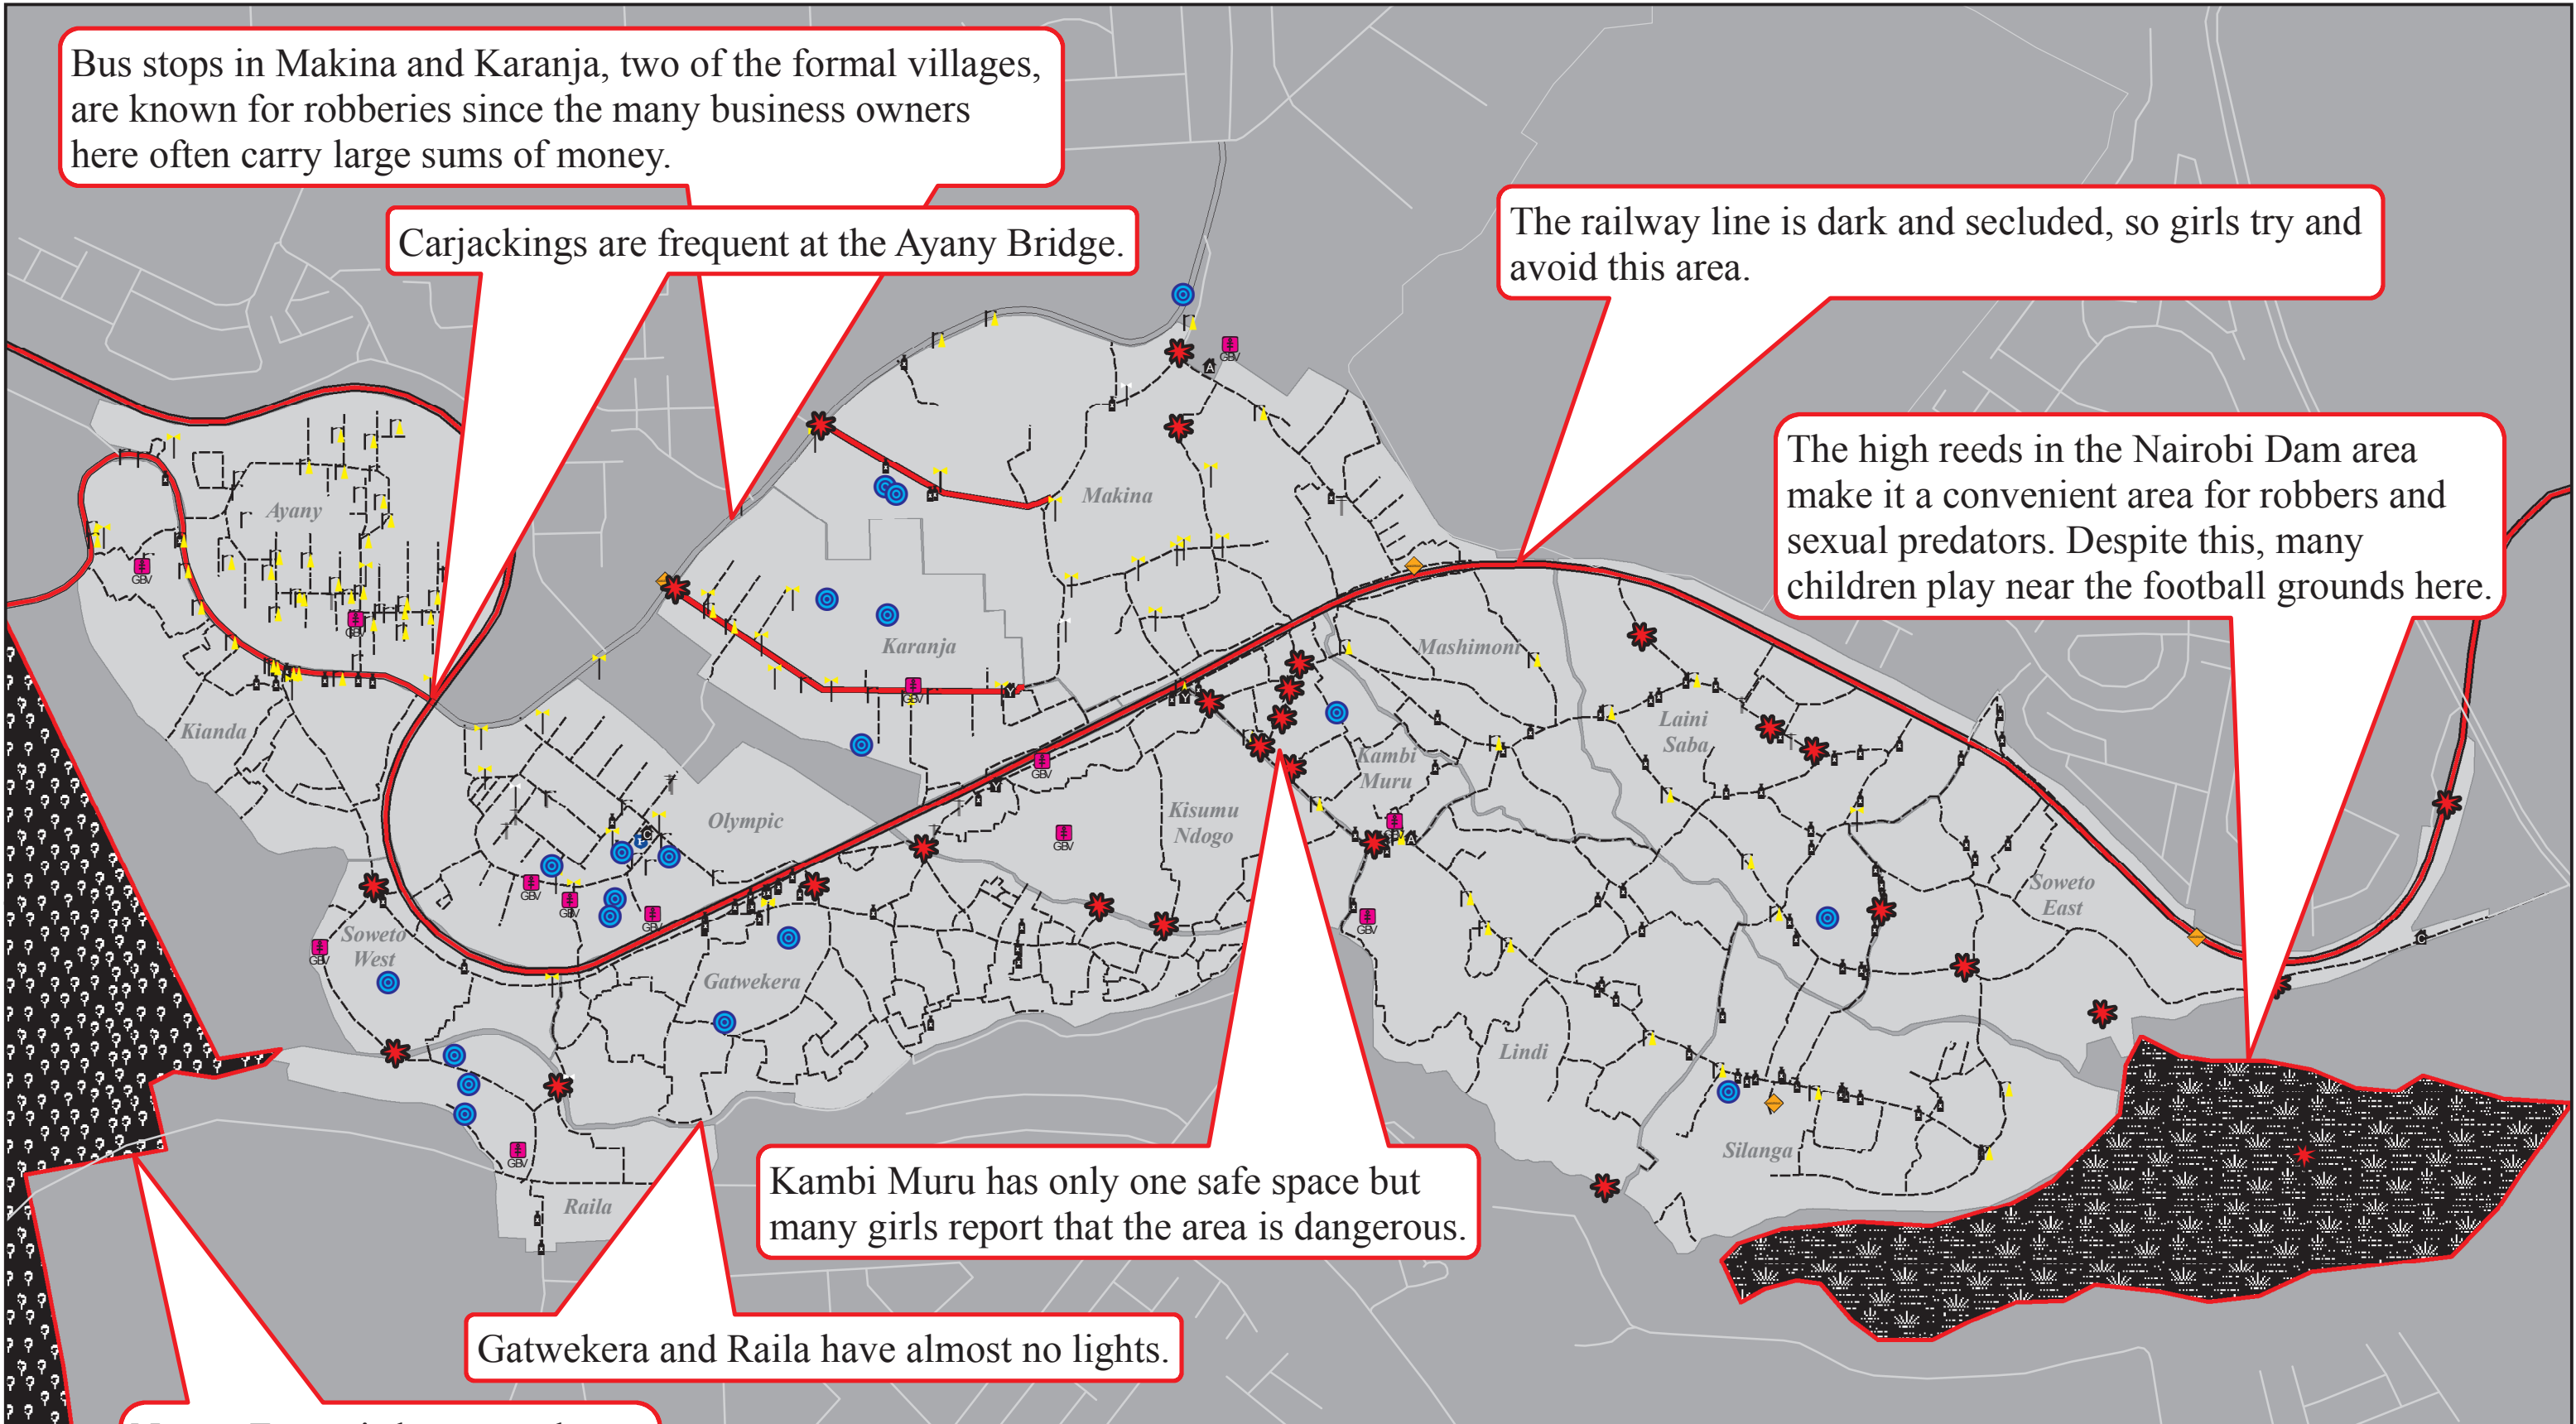

The railway line is dark and secluded, so girls try and avoid this area.

The high reeds in the Nairobi Dam area make it a convenient area for robbers and sexual predators. Despite this, many children play near the football grounds here.

Kambi Muru has only one safe space but many girls report that the area is dangerous.

Gatwekera and Raila have almost no lights.

Ngong Forest is known to be a place where rape and defilement take place. Girls avoid this area even during the day.
